

Guide to the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009

Office of Congresswoman Debbie Halvorson

March 9, 2009

Dear Friend:

Our economy is facing an economic crisis not seen since the Great Depression. With unemployment rising above eight percent and the economy shedding hundreds of thousands of jobs per month, Congress was compelled to act and did so in the form of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA). While the recovery bill is not perfect—as legislation resulting from compromise rarely is—the combination of $300 billion in tax cuts and $500 billion in government investment will improve the economy in the short and long term. The legislation is expected to create or save 3.5 million jobs in the next two years, 148,000 of them in Illinois alone.

Due to the recovery legislation's immense scope, I have assembled this guide as a beginning point to assist individuals, businesses, community organizations, and local governments in finding resources made available to them by the economic recovery bill. Please keep in mind that while Congress appropriated funding, there are no earmarks in the bill, so individual lawmakers do not have the ability to set aside money for specific projects. Decisions regarding approval of funding and disbursements are up to the State of Illinois or federal agencies. I will continue to work with the state and federal agencies to ensure funding for projects that are tested, vetted, and worthy.

This guidebook is divided into fourteen sections. This guide will distinguish between the programs which are administered through federal agencies and those administered through state agencies. In most cases, the federal funding does not require a local match. I will continue to update and enrich this document as the Act is implemented by various agencies and more information becomes available.

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act requires the White House to maintain a website, Recovery.Gov (<http://www.recovery.gov>), with detailed information on how recovery funds are being spent. The State of Illinois has also created a website regarding the recovery at <http://recovery.illinois.gov/>. I would encourage you to visit these websites for additional information.

I hope you'll find this information helpful. Please do not hesitate to call my office with any questions, comments, or suggestions. Locally you can call 815-726-4998 or you may reach my DC office at 202-225-3635. You can also contact me via my website, www.house.gov/halvorson, as well as find regular updates on what is happening in Congress.

Sincerely,

Debbie Halvorson
Member of Congress

Tax Relief

More than 35 percent of the package will provide direct tax relief to about 95 percent of American workers, as President Obama pledged, and spur investment and job growth for American businesses.

In addition to the information found below, you may visit an IRS site devoted specifically to the recovery act at: <http://www.irs.gov/newsroom/article/0,,id=204335,00.html?portlet=6>

Individuals

Extension of AMT Relief for 2009

The Act extends tax relief from the individual alternative minimum tax for 2009 by allowing nonrefundable credits to be claimed against the tax and by increasing the AMT exemption amount to $70,950 for joint filers and $46,700 for individuals.

Making Work Pay Credit

For 2009 and 2010, qualifying taxpayers (i.e., anyone that is not a nonresident alien, a dependent on another taxpayer's return, or an estate or trust) are eligible for the "making work pay credit," in an amount equal to the lesser of 6.2 percent of the taxpayer's earned income or $400 ($800 for taxpayers filing jointly). This credit begins to phase out for individual taxpayers with adjusted gross income of $75,000 and joint filers with adjusted gross income of $150,000.

One Time Economic Recovery Payment for Retirees

The Act provides a one-time $250 payment to persons who were eligible for the following government benefits within the three months prior to enactment of the new law: social security benefits; railroad retirement benefits; veterans' compensation or pension benefits; and supplemental security income benefits. This one-time payment reduces any allowable Making Work Pay credit.

Refundable Credit for Certain Government Retirees

For 2009, The Act provides a refundable $250 credit ($500 for taxpayers filing jointly who are both eligible for the credit) for retirees who receive a government pension or annuity from work not covered by Social Security and who weren't eligible to receive the One Time Economic Recovery Payment.

Exclusion of Unemployment Income

For 2009, The Act provides that a taxpayer's gross income does not include the taxpayer's first $2,400 of unemployment compensation.

American Opportunity Tax Credit

For 2009 and 2010, The Act provides taxpayers a new "American Opportunity tax credit" of up to $2,500 per year for qualified higher education expenses. The law makes 40 percent of the credit refundable. The credit may be applied against alternative minimum tax liability. The credit will be subject to phase out for individual taxpayers with modified adjusted gross income greater than $80,000 ($160,000 for taxpayers filing jointly)

Modified Child Tax Credit

Office of Congresswoman Debbie Halvorson

The Act increases the portion of the child care tax credit that is refundable for 2009 and 2010 to 15 percent of the taxpayer's adjusted gross income up to $3,000.

Changes in the Earned Income Tax Credit

For 2009 and 2010, the Act increases the credit percentage amount for the Earned Income Credit for families with three or more qualifying children from 40 percent to 45 percent of the taxpayer's first $12,570 of earned income. The Act also adjusts upward the phase-out range of the credit for 2009 and 2010 to eliminate any marriage penalty.

Refundable First-Time Home Buyer Credit

Last year, Congress provided taxpayers with a refundable tax credit that was equivalent to an interest-free loan equal to 10 percent of the purchase of a principal residence (up to $7,500) by first-time home buyers. The provision applies to homes purchased on or after April 9, 2008 and before July 1, 2009. Taxpayers receiving this tax credit are currently required to repay any amount received under this provision back to the government over 15 years in equal installments, or earlier under certain circumstances (for example, when the home is sold). The credit phases out for taxpayers with adjusted gross income in excess of $75,000 ($150,000 in the case of a joint return).

The Act eliminates the repayment obligation for taxpayers that purchase homes on or after January 1, 2009, increases the maximum value of the credit to $8,000, allows financing of the home purchase by mortgage revenue bonds (which was prohibited under the prior credit requirements) and extends the period for which home purchases are eligible through November 30, 2009. Like the pre-Act provision, the Act permits a taxpayer to claim the credit on the taxpayer's 2008 tax return for an eligible purchase in 2009. The Act requires a taxpayer to pay back the amount of the credit if the house is sold within three years of purchase. The Act does not eliminate the requirement that a homebuyer must be a "first time" homebuyer to qualify for the credit.

Cost of Individual Provisions

The provisions listed under this heading as "Other Provisions of Interest to Individual Taxpayers," the provisions listed above under the heading "Provisions Indirectly Affecting Businesses," and the first-time homebuyer credit changes were estimated to cost $247 billion over 10 years or approximately 82 percent of the total cost of the tax provisions in the tax title of the Act and the $250 payments/credits in the Economic Recovery Payments to Individuals subtitle.

Premium Assistance for COBRA Continuation

The Act provides premium assistance for COBRA continuation coverage for unemployed workers and their families. The assistance is a subsidy of up to 65 percent of cost for up to 9 months. The benefit is phased out for taxpayers with an adjusted gross income above $125,000 ($250,000 for joint filers).

Energy Incentives

Advanced Energy Credit

The Act establishes a new 30 percent investment tax credit for qualified investment in a "qualifying advanced energy project." A qualifying advanced energy project is a project that re-equips, expands or establishes a manufacturing facility for the production of (i) property designed to be used to produce energy from renewable resources, (ii) fuel cells, microturbines, or energy storage systems for use with electric or hybrid electric motor vehicles, (iii) electric grids to support the transmission of intermittent sources of renewable energy, (iv) property designed to capture and sequester carbon dioxide emissions, (v) property designed to refine or blend renewable fuels or to produce energy conservation technologies, (vi) new qualified plug-in electric drive motor vehicles, qualified plug-in electric vehicles or components designed to for use with such vehicles, or (vii) other advanced energy property designed to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

These generous credits are available only for projects certified by the Secretary of the Treasury under a program established in consultation with the Secretary of Energy. A competitive bidding process applies. Up to $2.3 billion of credits can be certified.

Extension of Energy Credit for Electricity Produced from Renewable

Resources

The Act includes a three-year extension of the renewable energy production tax credit for wind facilities (through December 31, 2012) and for closed-loop biomass, open-loop biomass, geothermal, small irrigation, hydropower, landfill gas, waste-to-energy, and marine renewable facilities (through December 31, 2013).

Investment Credit in Lieu of Production Credit; Grants from Treasury

Facilities that produce electricity from wind, closed-loop biomass, open-loop biomass, geothermal, small irrigation, hydropower, landfill gas, waste-to-energy, and marine renewable facilities are eligible for a production credit. The credit is spread over ten years and is dependent on the price for electricity. The Act permits owners of such facilities to claim a 30 percent investment tax credit when the property is placed in service in lieu of the production tax credit.

The Act permits taxpayers to receive grants from Treasury in lieu of production tax credits for certain renewable energy facilities and certain renewable energy property. The Treasury Department will issue a grant equal to 30 percent of the cost of the renewable energy facility within sixty days of the facility being placed in service (or, if later, within sixty days of receiving an application for the grant).

Clean Renewable Energy Bonds (“CREBs”)

The Act authorizes an additional $1.6 billion of clean renewable energy bonds to finance facilities that generate electricity from the following sources: wind, closed-loop biomass open-loop biomass, geothermal, small irrigation, hydropower, landfill gas, marine renewables and trash combustion facilities. This authorization will be subdivided into thirds: 1/3 will be available for qualifying projects of State/local/tribal governments; 1/3 for qualifying projects of public power providers; and 1/3 for qualifying projects of electric cooperatives.

Qualified Energy Conservation Bonds

The Act authorizes an additional $2.4 billion of qualified energy conservation bonds to finance State, municipal and tribal government programs and initiatives designed to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and other qualified conservation purposes.<sup>32</sup> The Act clarifies that qualified energy conservation bonds may be issued to make loans and grants for capital expenditures to implement green community projects and that for programs in which utilities provide ratepayers with energy efficient property and recoup the costs of the property over an extended period of time.

Tax Credits for Energy-Efficient Improvements to Existing Homes

The Act extends through 2010 tax credits for improvements to energy-efficient existing homes. The Act increases the amount of the credit to 30 percent of the amount paid or incurred for qualified energy efficiency improvements. The Act eliminates the property-by-property dollar caps on the credits and provides an aggregate cap of $1,500 on all property qualifying for the credit in a taxable year. The Act also updates the energy-efficiency standards for property qualifying for the credit.

Credits for Alternative Fueling Property

The Act increases for 2009 and 2010 the 30 percent alternative refueling property credit for businesses to a 50 percent credit and increases the cap from $30,000 to $50,000. The credit for hydrogen refueling pumps remains at 30 percent, but the cap is raised to $200,000. The Act also increases the 30 percent alternative refueling property credit for individuals to 50 percent and the cap from $1,000 to $2,000 for 2009 and 2010.

Plug-in Electric Drive Vehicle Credit<sup>35</sup>

The Act expands and modifies tax credits for plug-in vehicles and accessories. First, the Act modifies the credit for plug-in vehicles. The base amount of the credit is $2,500 and is increased if the vehicle draws propulsion from a battery with at least 5 kilowatt-hours capacity. This revised credit applies to vehicle purchases made after December 31, 2009. <sup>36</sup> Second, the Act allows a new credit of 10 percent of the cost of low-speed vehicles, motorcycles and 3-wheeled vehicles that would otherwise meet the criteria for qualified plug-in vehicle but for the fact that they are low speed or do not have four wheels, for purchases made after the date of enactment of the Act until December 31, 2011. The credit is capped at $2,500. Third, the Act provides a credit for conversion of a vehicle into a plug-in vehicle through a conversion kit, in an amount equal to 10 percent of so much of the cost of converting that does not exceed $40,000. The basis in a vehicle used in a trade or business will be reduced by any credit amount that is claimed with respect to that vehicle. In the case of a vehicle used by a tax-exempt entity or a governmental entity, the credit may be claimed by the seller of the vehicle.

Parity for Transit Benefits

The Act equalizes the tax-free benefit employers can provide for transit and parking from March 2011 through December 2010. The benefits are set at $230 per month for 2009 and indexed for 2010.

S Corporations and Small Business Tax Relief

S Corporation Built-in Gains

The Act includes a temporary reduction in the built-in gains tax period for S corporations. Under present law, an S corporation that sells assets within ten years of converting from C corporation to S corporation status is subject to the built-in gains tax, a corporate tax on the built-in gain that existed at the time of the S election. The Act reduces the 10-year period to 7 years for sales occurring in tax years beginning in 2009 and 2010.

Qualified Small Business Stock

The Act increases the exclusion from income for gain on the sale of certain small business stock held by individuals for more than five years from 50 percent to 75 percent. The benefit would apply to stock issued after enactment and before 2011.

Estimated Taxes for Small Businesses

The Act reduces the required estimated tax payments for 2009 for individuals receiving income from small businesses. The provision applies to an individual if the adjusted gross income shown on the individual's return for 2008 was less than $500,000 and the individual certifies that more than half of the gross income shown on the individual's return for 2008 was income from a small business with average employment of less than 500.

General Business Tax Provisions

Expansion of Work Opportunity Tax Credit

The Act expands the work opportunity tax credit to include credits for hiring two new targeted groups of employees -- unemployed veterans and disconnected youth -- who begin work for the employer in 2009 or 2010. An individual qualifies as an unemployed veteran if he or she was released from active duty in the Armed Forces during the five-year period before hiring and he or she received unemployment compensation for more than four weeks during the year before being hired. A "disconnected youth" is an individual between the ages of 16 and 25 who has not been regularly employed or attended school in the six months preceding hiring and who is "not readily employable by reason of lacking a sufficient number of basic skills."

Net Operating Losses

The Act extends the carryback period for net operating losses for a taxable year ending in 2008 (or at the taxpayer's election, a taxable year beginning in 2008) from two years to five years, but only for businesses that have $15 million or less in gross receipts.

Bonus Depreciation

In general, businesses are allowed to recover the cost of capital expenditures over time according to a depreciation schedule. Last year, Congress temporarily allowed businesses to recover the costs of capital expenditures made in 2008 faster than ordinary tax depreciation rules would allow by permitting these businesses to immediately write off 50 percent of the cost of depreciable property acquired in 2008 for use in the United States. The Act extends this temporary benefit for one year, generally through 2009 (through 2010 for certain long-lived and transportation property).

The Act also extends through 2009 the temporary increase to $250,000 of the amount of depreciable property that small and medium size businesses can expense (i.e., deduct immediately). This benefit is phased out if expenditures on depreciable property exceed $800,000.

Monetization of Accumulated AMT and R&D Credits in Lieu of Bonus Depreciation

The Act extends through 2009 (2010 for certain aircraft and long-production-period property) a provision included in the Housing and Economic Recovery Act that allows taxpayers to elect to forgo bonus depreciation and instead claim additional alternative minimum tax ("AMT") and research credits that they may not otherwise be able to use because of limitations on the use of such credits.

Under this provision, the research or AMT credit limitation for electing corporate taxpayers is increased by 20 percent of the bonus depreciation that could otherwise be claimed. The amount is capped at the lesser of 6 percent of (i) outstanding and unused AMT and R&D credits and (ii) $30 million.

Office of Congresswoman Debbie Halvorson

A taxpayer that made the election under the prior act for the first tax year ending after March 31, 2008, may elect to not have the election apply to extension property, i.e., property eligible for the election solely by reason of the amendments made by the Act.

Government Contractor Withholding

For payments made after December 31, 2010, current law requires withholding at a 3 percent rate on certain payments made by Federal, State and local governments to contractors providing property or services to the government. The withholding is required regardless of whether the government entity making the payment is the recipient of the property or services, although those with less than $100 million in annual expenditures for property or services are exempt.

Deferral of Income from Discharge of Indebtedness

Under present law, a taxpayer generally recognizes income when the taxpayer cancels or repurchases a debt for an amount less than its adjusted issue price or when debt is forgiven. Various exceptions apply to the general rule. The Act allows certain businesses to elect to defer recognition of cancellation of indebtedness income (“CODI”) on the “reacquisition” of business debt instruments during 2009 or 2010. The business would defer the CODI for five years in the case of 2009 reacquisition or four years in the case of 2010 reacquisition and then recognize the CODI ratably in income over the following five years.

The new provision applies to debt instruments issued by a C corporation or by any other person in connection with the conduct of a trade or business. A debt instrument is defined as a bond, debenture, note certificate, or any other instrument or contractual arrangement constituting indebtedness.

A “reacquisition” is an acquisition of a debt instrument by the debtor that issued (or is otherwise the obligor under) the debt instrument or a related person to such debtor. The term “acquisition” includes an acquisition for cash, the exchange of the debt instrument or another debt instrument, the exchange of a debt instrument or corporate stock or a partnership interest, and the contribution of the debt instrument to capital. “Acquisition” also includes complete forgiveness of the indebtedness.

Modification of Rules for OID on High Yield Obligations

The Act suspends special rules for original issue discount (“OID”) contained in Section 163(e)(5) of the Code in the case of any “applicable high yield discount obligation” (“AHYDO”) issued during the period beginning September 1, 2008 and ending on December 31, 2009 in exchange for an obligation which was not an AHYDO and the issuer of which is the same as the issuer of the AHYDO. Section 163(e)(5) ordinarily denies a deduction for a portion of the OID on an AHYDO instrument.

The Act gives the Treasury the authority beginning in 2010 to use a higher rate than prescribed by the Code for purposes of determining whether a debt instrument has a yield that will subject it to the AHYDO rules.

Bond Provisions

Recovery Zone Bonds

The Act creates two new categories of bonds for investment in national recovery zones - recovery

zone economic development bonds and recovery zone facility bonds.

Recovery zone economic development bonds are a new type of tax credit bond that may be issued for qualified economic development purposes, i.e., promoting development or other economic activity in a recovery zone. Recovery zone facility bonds are a new type of tax-exempt private activity bond for capital investments in national recovery zones.

The Act authorizes a $10 billion total allocation for recovery zone economic development bonds and a $15 billion total allocation for recovery zone facility bonds. These bonds could be issued during 2009 and 2010. Each State would receive a share of the national allocation based on that State's job losses in 2008 as a percentage of national job losses in 2008. The State allocation would be sub-allocated to local municipalities.

Modification to Tax-exempt Interest Expense Rules for Financial Institutions

Financial institutions are not allowed to take a deduction for the portion of their interest expense that is allocable to the institution's investments in tax-exempt municipal bonds. For purposes of this interest disallowance rule, bonds that are issued by "qualified small issuers" are not taken into account as investments in tax-exempt municipal bonds. Under current law, a "qualified small issuer" is defined as any issuer that reasonably anticipates that the amount of its tax-exempt obligations (other than certain private activity bonds) will not exceed $10 million. The Act increases this dollar threshold to $30 million when determining whether a tax-exempt obligation issued in 2009 and 2010 qualifies for this small issuer exception. The small issuer exception would also apply to an issue if all of the ultimate borrowers in such issue would separately qualify for the exception. Under the Act, for purposes of determining whether an issuer meets the requirements of the small issuer exception, qualified 501(c)(3) bonds issued in 2009 or 2010 are treated as if they were issued by the 501(c)(3) organization for whose benefit they were issued (and not by the actual issuer of such bonds).

The Act provides a new 2 percent safe harbor for the interest disallowance rule for financial institutions. Under the safe harbor, tax-exempt obligations issued during 2009 and 2010 that do not exceed 2 percent of the adjusted basis of the financial institution's assets are not taken into account for purposes of the interest disallowance rule.

Qualified School Construction Bonds

The Act creates a new category of tax credit bonds for the construction, rehabilitation, or repair of public school facilities or for the acquisition of land on which a public school facility will be constructed. There is a national limitation on the amount of qualified school construction bonds that may be issued by State and local governments of $22 billion ($11 billion allocated initially in 2009 and the remainder in 2010).

Allocations of the national limitation of qualified school construction bonds are divided between the States and certain large school districts. The States receive 60 percent of the national limitation for a calendar year and the remaining 40 percent of the national limitation for a calendar year is allocated to certain large local educational agencies

Qualified school construction bonds must meet the following three requirements:

- 100 percent of the available project proceeds of the bond issue is used for the construction, rehabilitation, or repair of a public school facility or for the acquisition of land on which such a bond-financed facility is to be constructed;
- the bond is issued by a State or local government within which such school is located; and
- the issuer designates such bonds as a qualified school construction bond.

Qualified Zone Academy Bonds

The Act allows an additional $1.4 billion of Qualified Zone Academy Bonds (“QZAB”) issuing authority to State and local governments in 2009 and 2010, which can be used to finance renovations, equipment purchases, developing course material, and training teachers and personnel at a qualified zone academy.

In general, a qualified zone academy is any public school (or academic program within a public school) below the college level that is located in an empowerment zone or enterprise community and is designed to cooperate with businesses to enhance the academic curriculum and increase graduation and employment rates. QZABs are a form of tax credit bonds which offer the holder a Federal tax credit instead of tax-free interest.

Industrial Development Bonds

The Act, for purposes of industrial development bonds, expands the definition of “manufacturing facility” to include any facility used to create, produce or manufacture intangible property, including any patent, copyright, formula, process, design, knowhow, format, or other similar item. The provision would also treat any functionally related and subordinate manufacturing facility that is located on the same site as the manufacturing facility as a “manufacturing facility” for these purposes.

The Act also describes those physical components of a manufacturing facility that are “ancillary” and subject to a 25 percent limitation in the amount of bond issuance used to build or reconstruct such components.

Alternative Minimum Tax

Interest on private activity bonds is generally treated as an item of tax preference under the minimum tax and included in income for purposes of calculating alternative minimum taxable income. Under the Act, interest on private activity bonds issued during 2009 and 2010 will not be treated as a preference item for purposes of calculating alternative minimum taxable income.

Tax Credit Bonds

Tax credit bonds and tax-exempt bonds provide a subsidy to State and local governments by reducing the cash interest payments that a State or local government must make on its debt. Tax credit bonds differ from tax-exempt bonds in that interest paid on tax credit bonds is taxable, and a portion of such interest takes the form of a tax credit. The tax credit offsets a portion of the cash interest payment that a State and local government would otherwise need to make on the borrowing. The Act, for 2009 and 2010, provides State and local governments with the option of issuing a tax credit bond instead of a tax-exempt bond. Bonds issued under this provision are known as Build America Bonds.

The Act also permits State and local governments to elect to receive a direct payment from the Federal government equal to the subsidy that would have otherwise been delivered through the tax credit for bonds. The Act provides transitional rules for coordination with State law. The Act provides that until a State provides otherwise, the interest on any taxable governmental bond and the amount of any credit under such bond is treated as exempt from Federal income tax for State income tax law purposes.

The Act adds a new Code section that permits regulated investment companies to pass through to their shareholders credits from tax credit bonds. The new provision also allows the tax credits from tax credit bonds to pass through to beneficiaries of real estate investment trusts (REITS).

Provisions Indirectly Benefiting Businesses

Computers as Qualified Education Expenses in Section 529 Plans

The Act expands the definition of “qualified higher expenses” under Section 529 of the Code to include expenses paid or incurred in 2009 or 2010 for the purchase of any computer technology or equipment or Internet access and related services if such technology, equipment or services are to be used by the beneficiary of the Section 529 account and the beneficiary’s family during any of the years the beneficiary is enrolled at an eligible institution. That means that funds can be withdrawn tax-free from Section 529 accounts for such use in 2009 or 2010.

Sales Tax Deduction for Vehicle Purchases

The Act provides taxpayers who itemize deductions (and do not deduct sales taxes in lieu of income taxes) with an itemized deduction for State and local sales and excise taxes paid on the purchase of new cars, light trucks, recreational vehicles, and motorcycles in 2009. Taxpayers who do not itemize also may claim the deduction as an increased standard deduction. The deduction is phased out for taxpayers with adjusted gross income in excess of $125,000 ($250,000 for a joint return). Only taxes attributable to the portion of the purchase price that does not exceed $49,500 may be deducted.

Grants:

Energy Efficiency and Conservation Block Grant (EECBG)

Amount: $3.2 billion ($2.8 billion formula; $400,000 competitive)
Type: Formula & competitive
Administrator: U.S. Department of Energy - Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy
Purpose: Assists states and local governments in implementing strategies to reduce fossil fuel emissions created as a result of activities within the jurisdictions of the eligible entities and reduce the total energy use. Activities eligible to receive funding include: conducting residential and commercial building energy audits; establishing financial incentives programs for energy efficiency improvements; grants to non-profits organizations to perform energy efficiency retrofits; developing/implementing programs to conserve energy used in transportation; developing and implementing building codes and inspections services to promote building energy efficiency; installing light emitting diodes (LEDs); and developing, implementing, and installing on or in any government building onsite renewable energy technology that generates electricity from renewable sources.
Eligible Recipients: States (to receive 28 percent of formula funding), eligible units of local governments (68 percent of formula), and tribes (2 percent of formula)

Health

Community Health Centers

The Recovery Act provides a total of $2 billion for Community Health Centers over the next two years, in order to reduce health care costs by meeting basic health needs for uninsured Americans.

On March 2, President Obama announced the release of $155 million in Recovery Act funds – the first installment of this $2 billion appropriation – to support 126 Community Health Centers across the country. These grants totaling $155 million alone will help provide health services to 750,000 Americans and create 5,500 jobs.

Coupon:

Digital TV Conversion Coupon Program

Amount: $650 million, $40 coupon available

Agency: Federal Communications Commission

Description: Funds to continue the coupon program to enable American households to convert from analog television transmission to digital transmission. Your TV signal is switching to “digital.” For more than fifty years, TV broadcasters have sent their shows to your TV using “analog” signals. By June 12, full power analog signals will be gone and most of the stations you watch will use only the new digital signals. However your local broadcaster may make the transition before then, and some already have. The converter box will attach to your TV and let you go on getting free TV. With the converter box you can get a better picture and more channels. The antenna you have should work with the box. You can buy a converter box at a retail store. The boxes will cost $40 to $70. You can get two $40 coupons per household from the US Government to help you pay for up to two boxes. (One coupon per box only. Please note that these coupons will expire 90 days after mailing.

Type: coupons to individuals
